NEW YORK RESIDENTS – Any person who knowingly and with intent to defraud any insurance company or other person files an application for insurance or statement of claim containing any materially false information, or conceals for the purpose of misleading, information concerning any fact material thereto, commits a fraudulent insurance act, which is a crime, and shall also be subject to a civil penalty not to exceed five thousand dollars and the stated value of the claim for each such violation. This notice ONLY applies to accident and health coverage.

- I am electing coverage continuation and I understand I will be direct billed for this coverage for the length of the continuation period. I declare the information above is true and understand it is the basis for determining the monthly contribution for coverage. I understand that this is not health insurance and it does not reimburse me for medical expenses. It does not substitute for essential health benefits or minimum essential coverage as defined in federal law.
- I do not wish to elect the above coverage continuation. I certify that I have been given the opportunity by my above named employer to elect coverage continuation.

I have read and understand the terms and requirements of the fraud warnings included as part of this form.
